A Motion was made by Larry Schickling and seconded by Andy Gappa to approve closing the swimming pool for the 2020 Season. After discussion the Council felt the revenue that it will be losing due to sanitizing and only allowing a certain number of people in to use the pool it would be best to concentrate on the major repairs that are needed to the pool. Plans and specifications are being complete to sandblast and paint the pool this summer. The staff and Council will look at more repairs that need to be completed. The City Staff and Times Messenger will work together to do a progress report of the repairs. Voting in favor of said motion by roll call; Mike Grote-Yes, Larry Schickling-Yes, Cody Eager-No, Andy Gappa-Yes and Dave Whitney-Yes. Motion was approved with 4-1 vote.

Park and Rec was discussed and decisions on this will be made by Governor Walz's guidelines as they become available.

Campground will remain closed until May 18th. Seasonal camping will be looked into.

Golf course is open to members only. Clubhouse is closed. Cart sheds are open to only individuals that have paid for storage.
